1970-1971 LOYOLA FILM SERIES
.....

In conjunction with the Czechoslovak film festival, and under the auspices of the Visiting Lecturers' Committee, MICHAEL JACOT, Canadian writer, dramatist and film maker, will be at Loyola on Thursday, March 25th.

Mr. Jacot, who last year completed the first-ever Canadian-Czechoslovak co-production feature film, The Last Act of Martin Weston, will speak on the film situation in post-'68 Czechoslovakia. Presently setting up his second Czech-Canadian feature, Mr. Jacot will also introduce a Czech film he has brought back to Canada, Karel Kachyna's extraordinary, Night of the Nun, starring Czechoslovakia's leading film actress, Jana Brejchova.
